FRIDAY

WINTER WALKING WITH ALPACAS

Our fluffiest winter walking tour!

(01.12.2023 – 22.03.2024)

This is a winter wonderland walk with a difference as your companions along the way are woolly alpacas! These gentle ‘teddy bears’ are children and family-friendly and guarantee a fun walk in the snow for all concerned. After the walk, we go back to the alpaca stable for some warming punch or mulled wine and – of course – for some more time to stroke the alpacas.

The activity takes place in all weathers and will be adapted to suit conditions. Walking boots and outdoor clothing are essential. Children and youths may only participate if accompanied by an adult. Child’s price available for children aged 4-14. The guided alpaca walk is conducted in German, English, Italian and French.

WEDNESDAY

THROUGH THE GLEIRSCH GORGE

On the trail of the old loggers in the Karwendel Nature Park.

(22.05. – 23.10.2024)

Take a trip back in time on the loggers' trail. In the 19th century, felled timber in the Karwendel was driven along the river to Scharnitz for processing and this walk traces part of the wood-cutting and log-driving route. Starting off alongside the rushing water of the Gleirsch gorge, the route then continues along the magnificent Hochwald Trail where you can enjoy a visit to the Holzerhütte (loggers' museum).

Sturdy footwear and waterproof clothing are essential and we recommend bringing a bottle of water and a small snack. The guided nature hike is conducted in German.

When: 09.15 – approx. 15.00
(walking time: 5 hours / height difference: 470 m)

Where: Scharnitz Nature Park and Information Centre

Price: € 15.00 with guest card
€ 27.00 without guest card

Registration: by 17.00 on Tuesday

Participants: max. 12 people
